INTERNATIONAL HARMONIZATION OF REGULATORY AND SUPERVISORY FRAMEWORKS

Klaus Peter Follak

A. Introduction 16.01
B. Banking institutions 16.02
   (1) Capital requirements as a tool for harmonization at the turn of the millennium 16.03
   (2) Developments expected after the year 2000 16.16
C. Joint supervision of financial services conglomerates 16.23
D. Implementation of harmonization efforts 16.33
   (1) Implementation of the Basel Accord and promulgation of the 'Core Principles' 16.34
   (2) Regional harmonization within the EU 16.40
E. Progress achieved to date and problems outstanding 16.54
F. Outlook 16.74

A. Introduction

Banking supervision comprises the techniques to ensure the proper conduct of banking businesses. However, banking services can no longer be regarded as an isolated field. Four institutions are now involved in the international harmonization of regulatory and supervisory frameworks:

1. the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision;
2. the European Commission;

* Dr of Law, Director of the Württembergische Hypothekenbank, Stuttgart.